DEDICATION

This year we have been more aware than ever before of the co-operation between our parents and our school. The Mother's Club, in particular, has given invaluable assistance in promoting the successful School Bond Issue, and in raising a considerable fund for a school cafeteria.

Because your devotion, interest, and guidance have inspired us to the higher things of life, and because you have provided us with all the necessities of living so that we might obtain our education, we dedicate, with deepest love and esteem, the 1951 edition of the PIONEER to you, our parents.

THE NEW SWANTON HIGH

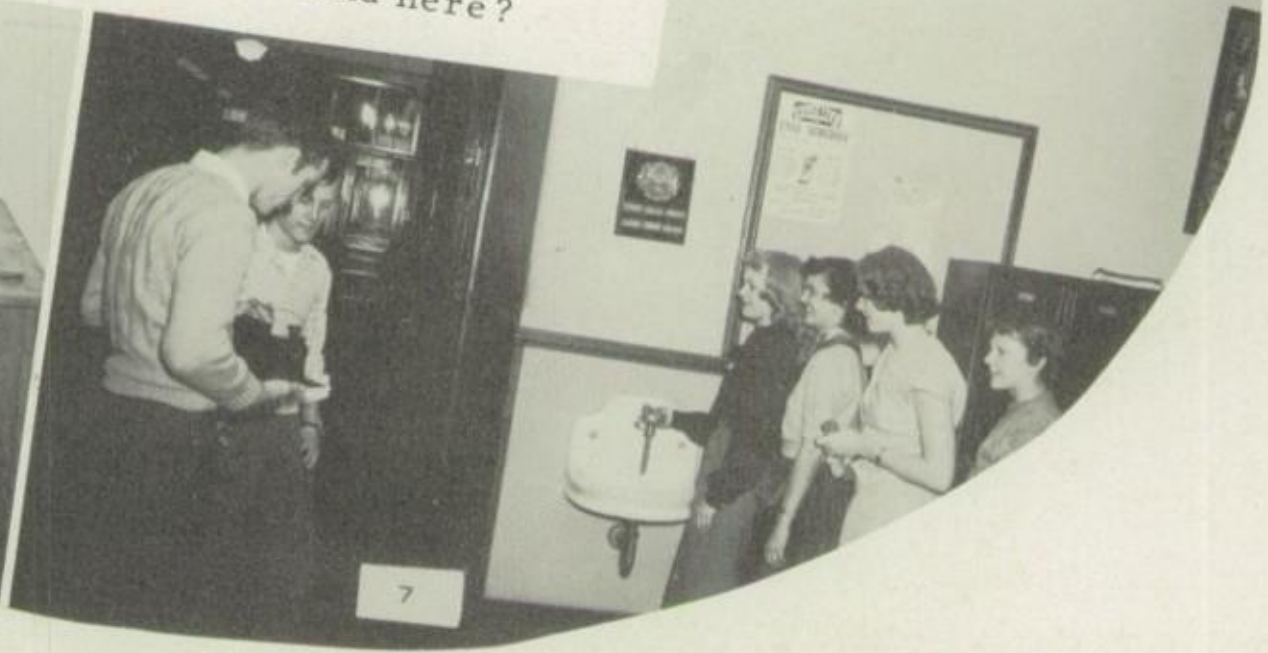

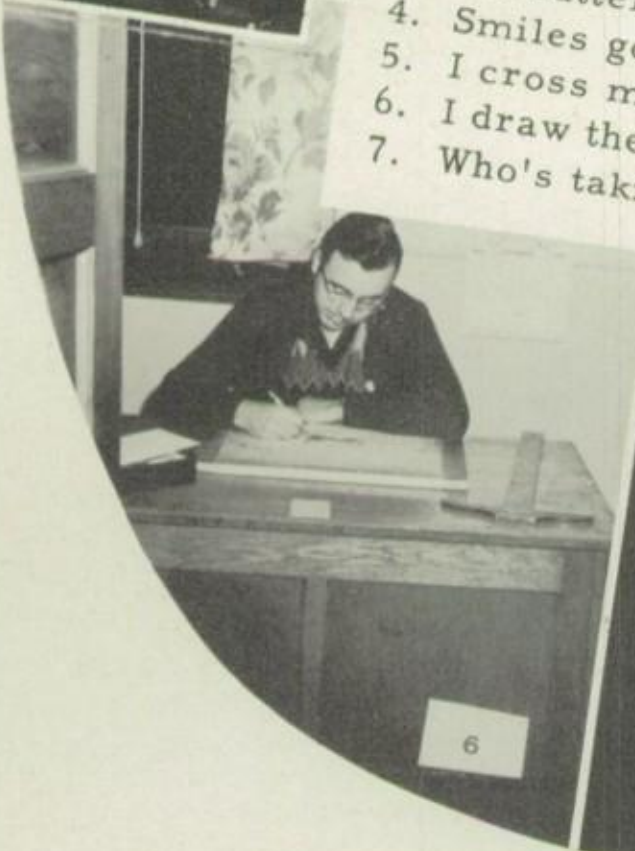

This is the architect's model of the proposed addition to our school buildings for which funds were voted last November.

It will contain a library, shop, commercial and home economics departments, study hall, offices, eight regular classrooms, toilet facilities, and gymnasium. The old buildings will be remodeled to contain a kindergarten, cafeteria, high school science rooms, additional grade rooms, possible music room, and grade physical education space.

THE STAFF AT WORK

1. For once they're handing me money!
2. Assignments for this--too!
3. No buttered-fingers for me.
4. Smiles go a long, long way.
5. I cross my fingers for no mistakes.
6. I draw the line here!
7. Who's taking what around here?

At this crucial time in the rapid expansion and development of Swanton Schools, we wish to express our appreciation to these five citizens upon whose judgment so much of our future depends.

TRANSPORTATION

Transportation plays an important part in a modern high school. More than half of our students ride to and from school on busses. This work is very capably done by the following drivers: Frank Carpenter, Guy Sharpe, James Judson, Claren Maurer, Ed Meier, George Bratton, Carl Bryan, and Orval Kline.

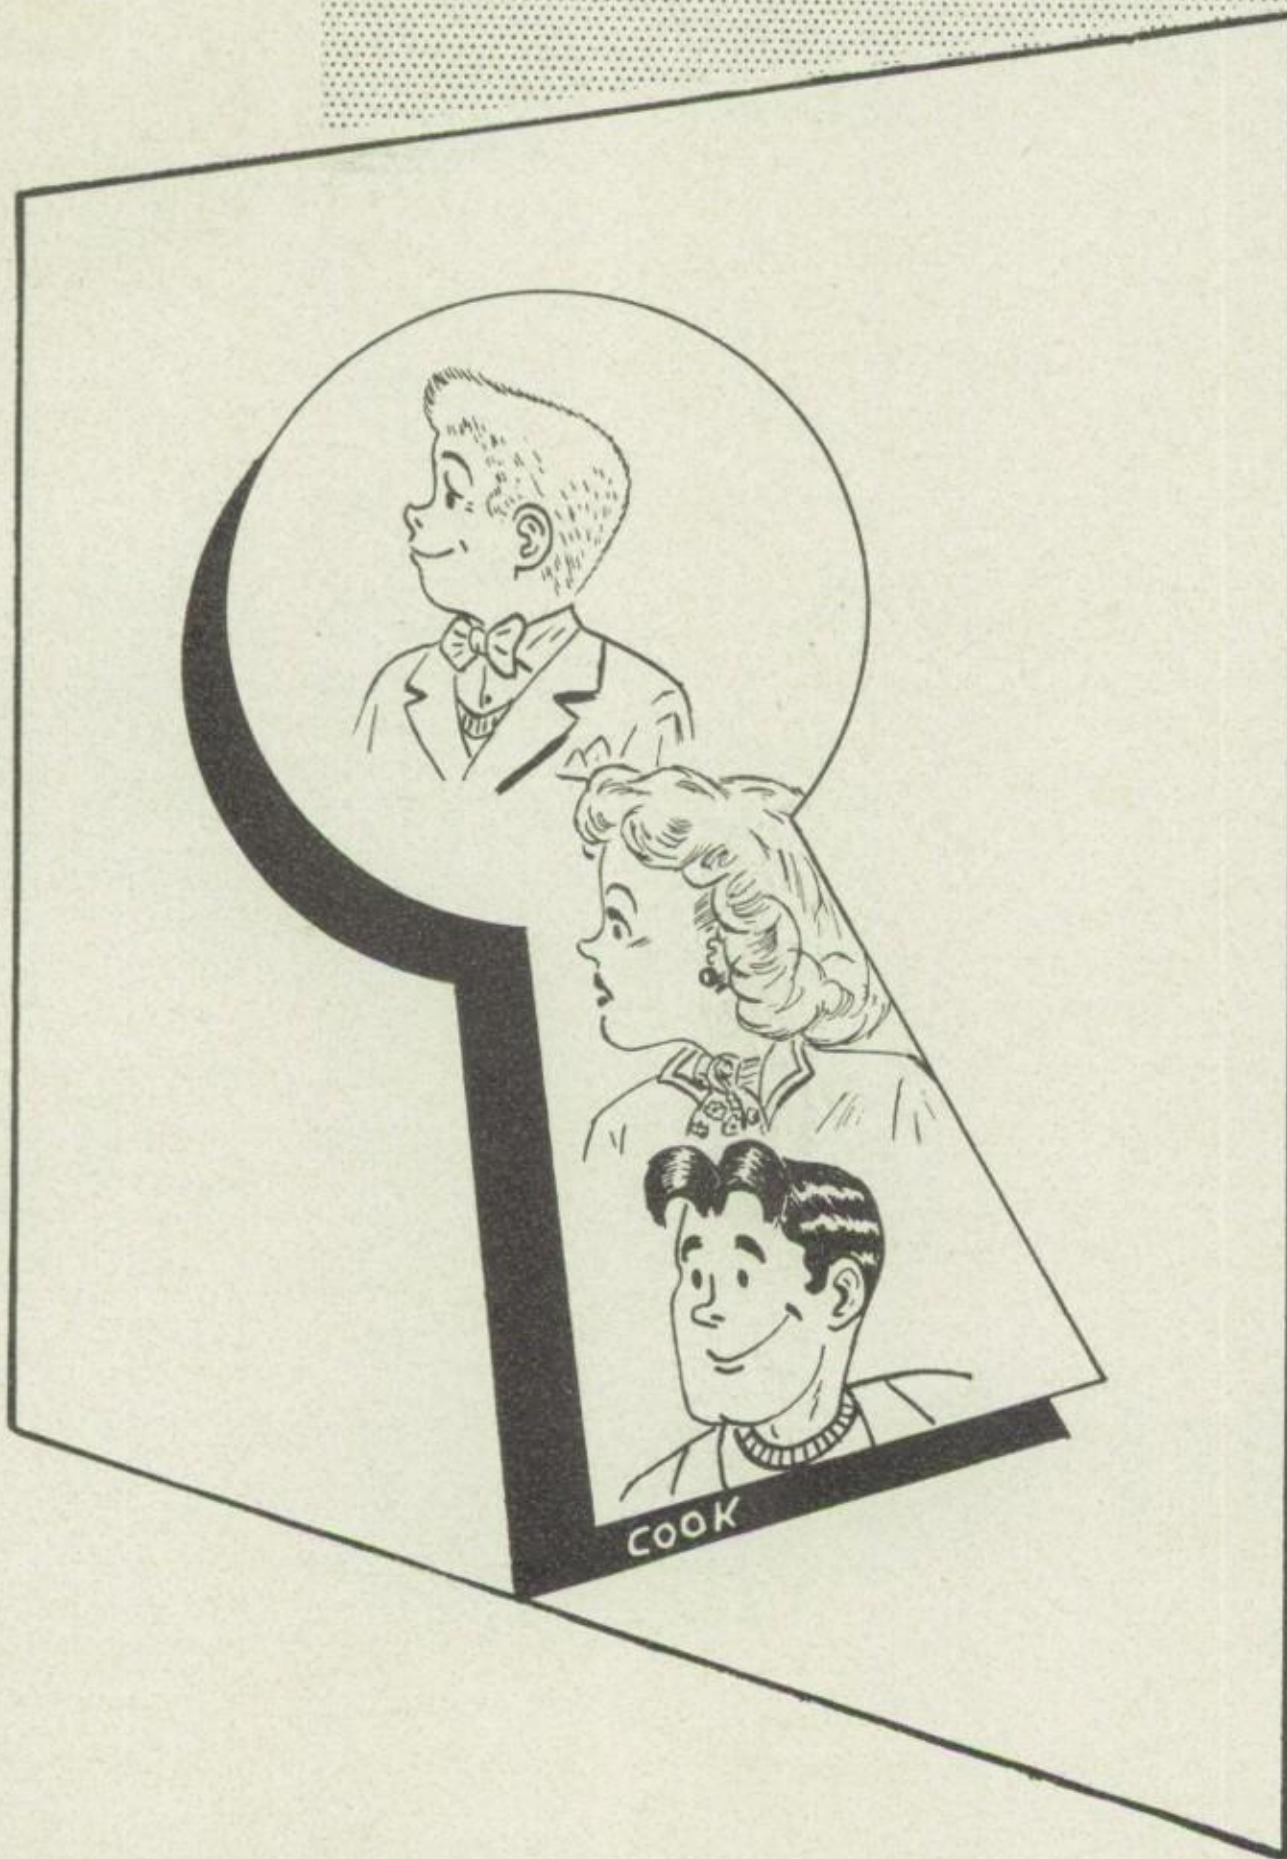

JANITORS

Mr. Cole
Mr. Johns

The thanks we owe to our janitors is endless. It is their responsibility to keep our school building warm and clean. Their work is deeply appreciated by the entire student body. Whether the task be shoveling snow, washing the windows, raking leaves, stoking the fire, or polishing the floors, it is always done well and with a smile.

And so, we wish to thank Mr. Johns and Mr. Cole, our two loyal janitors, for doing their part in keeping our school system running very smoothly.

IN MEMORIAM

Those of us who knew Bob Haynes well, just couldn't believe the news of his death. Knowing him since the first grade and being around him so much it was almost impossible to believe him to be dead. Bob always was so much alive, he always had a new joke to tell you. After the disbelief turned to sorrow, we realized how close Bob was to us. The school will never be quite the same without his presence, he was always interested in everything and he entered into each activity he undertook, with so much enthusiasm. Although Bob greatly enjoyed his school days, it is a tragedy that he couldn't graduate and turn his great energy to some other field.

Bob was a person who got along with everyone with whom he associated, he had countless friends and he made no enemies. If there were more people like Bob in this muddled world, the earth would be a far better place in which to live. Bob was almost never sad at school, he always had a smile on his face and a good word for everyone. "Little Bob" made a great contribution to the lives of those who had him as a friend and he will long be remembered for his optimistic attitude. We could all do well to be more like Bob. He has added something to the school which can never be taken away and he will always be remembered by his friends.

From Swanton Hi-Life

---Bill Butz

I cannot and I will not say
That he is dead--he is just away!

With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand
He has wandered into an unknown land,

And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be since he lingers there.

And you--O you, who the wildest yearn
For the old-time step and glad return,

Think of him as faring on, as dear
In the Love of There as the Love of Here.

Think of him still as the same I say;
He is not dead--he is just away!

---James Whitcomb Riley

Today as I was going to Chicago from Toledo on the Chicago Pike in my new Olds 888 (sequel to the 88) I noticed a large sign pointing northward reading "SWANTON." As I was in no hurry, I decided to stop and see some of my former classmates.

Entering the town, I was going 21 m. p. h. in a 20 m. p. h. speed zone when I was promptly stopped by the local police chief who was none other than my former classmate, Jim Hallett. Being an old friend of his made no difference, however, for I was brought before another classmate of mine, Justice of the Peace Roger Flynn and was fined $15.20 plus costs.

After paying the fine, I decided to drive through my old home town. As I drove, I noticed campaign posters for the election of mayor. Gweneth Bloom, recently voted "the Waitress we'd most like to be served by" by the "Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Cross-eyed Cats" of which Bob Holland is president, was running on the Democratic ticket. Her opposition was Ed Brodbeck, managing editor of the nationally famous "Peek" magazine.

Running for school board in this election was Bonnie Belcher, the famous interior decorator; Perry Zeigler, the multimillionaire stock raiser; Robert Mitchell, the founder and president of the "Mitchell Academy of Physical Science and Muscular Development"; William Witker, the owner of the famous chain, "Witker Drugs, Inc."; William Sperling, editor of the SWANTON ENTERPRISE; Richard Wilson, owner of Wilson's Haberdashery; and Norene Taylor, the famous creator of the "Odd Look."

Among those running for city council were Ann Brockhoff, founder of "Brockhoff's Baby Bouncers--Singing Lullabies a specialty" Barbara Hallett, world famous woman lawyer, who recently won a case for the Music Critics Association of America against ex-President Truman; Pat Babos, the famous model and editor of STARE--the women's answer to ESQUIRE. Joseph Winterfeld, owner of the Winterfeld Trucking Co.; Pat Garry, owner and operator of the "105th Avenue Beauty Salon"; Jim Iler, the unemployed (at present) bachelor; and Mrs. Thomas Mroczkowski, the former Marynette Myers and 2nd grade teacher at Swanton Grade School; and Mrs. Joyce McGhee the former Joyce Leonard and woman evangelist and wife of Bill McGhee, the All-American 1st team pocket billiards player for BIT (Braille Institute of Technology).

Then I decided to go over to the school to see some more friends of mine who were teachers. As I walked into the office, I asked Superintendent Dick Jacquot who was the principal, and he said Bill Jones was and that he was in his office. I went to the principal's office thinking that I ought to surprise Bill by walking in on him without knocking. I did that and as I opened the door, I saw his secretary, Mag Blayz, perched on his knee taking dictation. As soon as they saw me, they both became very red and Mag managed to say a meek, "Hello", before running out of the office. From Bill I found out that the school was staffed by former classmates and that three of the teachers and Mag belong to "The Sinister Spinsters of Swanton," a group created to preserve the fine art of spinstering. They are, Miss Joan Stapleton, 1st grade teacher; Miss Judy Mossing, 5th grade teacher; and Miss Mary Bratton, the 7th grade teacher. Mrs. Betty Holland, formerly Betty Niner, is the 3rd grade teacher; Miss Janet Glanz is the Shorthand and Accounting teacher; Mrs. Jean Butz, formerly Jean Brodbeck, is the 8th grade teacher, Gaython Eaton was the Water Commissioner of Swanton besides being Industrial Arts Teacher and Basketball Coach. Paul Adams is the American and World History teacher, but is a milkman in the wee hours of the morning. Miss Peggy Ball is the English and Latin teacher Mrs. Fay Bartlett, formerly Fay Sutherland, is the voice and music teacher. Darolyn Olmstead is the Home Economics teacher and official referee of the girls' intramural games. Viola Mines is the math teacher. Pat Smith is coach of Swanton's mighty Bulldogs, undefeated, untied, and unscored upon in 38 straight football games. His assistant is Paul Kreuz.

I then left Bill and walked down town in order to see the new buildings and businesses in Swanton. On the first building I noticed a large sign reading "Butz and Lingenfelter--Physician and Mortician--If one of us can't help you, the other one certainly can." Evidently they have a very profitable business, for there were two helicopters parked on the roof. On the outskirts of town, there is a new motel being built by Shirley and Marvin Geiser. Across the street from this is "The Sparrow Club," a famous nite club owned and operated jointly by Duane Durr and Tom Bollinger. The main attractions there are Sue Rolen, the singing waitress, and June Mason, the warbling hatcheck girl.

As I walked farther downtown, I noticed a large neon sign reading "M and K Smoke Shop and Billiard Academy--With every carton of cigarettes a free booklet, "Tips for Pool", written by Ken Mossing. "This is run by Ken Mossing and Frank Kreuz. Kenny takes care of the smoke shop while Frank racks the balls for the pool room. Next to the Billiard Academy is "Lloyd's Jewelry Store and the 138th National Bank, the President of which is Bob Hahn. His first Vice-President in charge of loans is Glen Buckenmeyer. The 2nd Vice-President, who is teller, is Bill Stuckey, whose secretary is his wife Lois (Franklin). Next to the Bank is the B & G Hat Shop--run jointly by Hattie Brown and Bertha Garner. Across the street from the hat shop is Cook's Art Shop, run by Jim Cook, the designer of the new school addition, and his wife, Marilyn (Kreuz). Next to the Art Shop is the Kroger Supermarket, managed by Robert Camp and his assistant, Jim Jones, Mrs. Jones, formerly Carolyn Kreuz, is head cashier. Working at the Kroger Store as head butcher is Tom Mroczkowski. Directly across the street from Kroger's is the A & P Supermarket, managed by George Hayden.

Next door to the A & P is Nowowiejski's Hardware run by Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Nowowiejski (Mary Lou Bushong). Next door to the Hardware is the Storeholder Feed Store --"Hayseed a Specialty," run by Dallas Storeholder. Across the street I noticed a large neon sign reading, "Doren's Music Shop --Record and Sheet Music, Accordion Lessons, Repairing Accordians a specialty--Musical Instruments of all kinds." Evidently it was run by Eugene Doren for I saw him outside showing his ace clerk, Carl Weiss, how to wash the windows. Next to the Music Store, I noticed a familiar sign. This one consisting of three balls and on the window was printed, "Yager's Hock Shop--New and Used Articles bought and Sold", run by Leo Yager.

At the end of Main Street, I noticed a new building and the sign on it read--"Weisweber Lanes--Open Bowling on Saturdays, Sundays, and Holidays--lessons 10 a.m. on Saturdays." The bowling alleys owned and managed by Wyloden Weisweber, national ladies singles champ who bowled three consecutive 300 games in tournament competition. The head pin boy and league bowling supervisor is Calvin Lehman. Above the bowling alleys is the main office of the "L. H. A. A." (Lonely Hearts Association of America.) of which Nancy Whaley is president and founder. I then noticed an orange and chartreuse colored car go by. Painted on the door of the car was "Poorman's Driving School -- Guaranteed to know how to drive after our 38 easy lessons or we will give you another complete course free." Betty was teaching Madeline Black, author of Easy Ways to Earn More Credits for G. A. A., how to drive, but evidently she wasn't learning too well for she crashed into a large sign which advertised the new movie, "Good-morning Irene" in which Irene Twigg, the only Irene that said goodnight, is the star. Playing opposite Irene as the villain in the all-girl movie is the "Bewitching Blonde"--Stella Span who is a referee for women's wrestling matches in her spare time. Recently Stella refereed the women's championship of the world. In the match, Archie Mae Wells successfully defended her title against Mauling Marynette Mroczkowski, one of the teachers at Swanton, I walked around town some more, then I looked at my watch, it was later than I thought for I had only 45 minutes to get to Chicago in time for a conference but I didn't worry too much for I was confident I could get there in my 888 so I left Swanton and continued to Chicago.

The Hi-Life, our weekly newspaper, is in its twenty-second year of publication. Articles edited are sports, gossip, editorials, Senior biographies, school news, and feature articles.

The staff is honored with a banquet every spring by Mr. Walter Pinkstone, publisher of Swanton's newspaper.

The Hi-Life staff was responsible for giving the study hall that holiday atmosphere with Christmas decorations.

Considerable credit goes to George Butz, for his splendid editorials and excellent assignments.

A great deal of credit also goes to the advisors, Mrs. Carpenter and Mr. Runnels for their patience and guidance.

Swanton Photography Club was first organized in 1939. The purpose of the club is to teach the interested students of Swanton High the fundamentals of good photography. Requirements for membership are that the individual must have an interest in photography, own a camera, and be an upper classman.

It is considered as one of the best organizations in the school. One of the reasons it is exceptionally good is because of the sponsorship of Mr. Daniels. Mr. Daniels has been the sponsor of this club for the last six years.

The club has a completely furnished dark room with equipment necessary to develop, print, and enlarge pictures.

Last year the Photo club staged a comedy to for the student body which was a great success. It delighted the students and proved that the members can act as well as they can take pictures. At this assembly they also presented the Photo Queen of 1950, Betty Niner with her five attendants! Norene Taylor, Patricia Babos, Doris Degenfelder, Sue Rolen, and Star Tansel.

The annual picnic which is held each May is also an event greatly anticipated by members of the club.

The club maintains equipment valued at approximately $150 which is used by almost all members of the club.

The principal money-raising project is selling milk every noon. This, with club dues of fifty cents per year, contributes to fact that the Photography Club is one of the most prosperous organizations in school.

Since the Camera Club was just organized this school year its membership is still quite small. There are thirteen members in the club now. Although there are no girls in this organization as yet, they are eligible if they meet the requirements. Throughout the year they have taken some very interesting pictures.

In order to join this organization the student must own a camera, have an active interest in photography, a purpose for joining, and your application must be accepted by a majority of the club.

We want to wish this club the best of luck in the years to come.

SENIOR Y-TEENS

The Y-Teens organization was started at Swanton High School during the years 1930-31 and was reorganized as the Girl Reserves. Recently it was changed to the Y-Teens making it more easily identified with the Y.W.C.A. The purpose of the organization is to strive for and create higher social, moral, and spiritual standards.

This year the Senior Y-Teens sponsored the annual Christmas Dance, "Snowshoe Schuffle." They obtain advice from their sponsor, Mrs. Titgemeyer.

The Freshman Y-Teens sponsored the annual Valentine Dance, "Cupid's Ball," on February 10. Their advisor is Miss McLaughlin.

The Sophomore Y-Teens sponsored the April Fool's Day Dance, "Fool's Frolic," on March 31. The advisor of this group is Mrs. Sagert.

TRACK FOR '51

This year's track team is looking forward to conquering Delta, the county champs of last year, and taking the championship trophy instead of the runners-up. This will be quite a task but since Swanton has the largest membership in their team since the organization of track, Swanton is sure to give Delta and anyone else in the county a real battle. The team is also looking forward to racking up some points in their other meets such as the Devilbis Relays and the Maumee Invitational. These two meets will be very trying for many of the larger schools have the edge on S.H.S. and S.H.S. must make up for it in some other way. Perhaps this will be done in spirit for the team so far has been very high in morale.

The mainstays of this years team will be Bill Butz, Gay-thon Eaton, Carl Buehrer, Larry Dunbar, Jim Mason, Lou Pilliod, Jim Thompson, and Dave Peters. Eaton, county high jump champ last year, will also be one of our desk men. Bill Butz and Jim Thompson will be in on the dash. Butz, too, is the teams leading broad jumper. Pilliod, Buehrer, Dunbar, and Peters will be the distance runners. Mason will lead the pole vaulters and weight men.

New found discoveries this year are George Johnson and Bruce Vaughan. Johnson showed that he is a boy to be watched in the dashes by easily licking Butz, one of the fastest last year. Vaughan proved to be a fine discus thrower by heaving it 91 feet his second day out.

If you don't already know the coaches, they are Mr. Eaton and Mr. Verduin. Mr. Verduin helped a great deal this year by leading the boys through exercises and really whipping them into shape.
